

Surrender to No One

Chastain

Brave is brave, right is right
The tide is ours and turning
Dark is dark, wrong is wrong
They will soon be burning

Year by year, word by word
We have set to planning
Blood by blood, hate by hate
We have moral standing

Surrender To No One Ever Again
Surrender To No One Ever Again

Screams of pain, eyes of red
When did it begin?
Home is now a battlefield
We can no longer yield

Surrender To No One Ever Again
Surrender To No One Ever... Again

Brave is brave, right is right
The tide is ours and turning
Dark is dark, wrong is wrong
They will soon be burning

Year by year, word by word
We have set to planning
Blood by blood, hate by hate
We have moral standing

Surrender To No One Ever Again
Surrender To No One Ever Again

Step by step, week by week
Stand proud and tall
Home is now a battlefield
We can no longer yield

Surrender To No One Ever
Surrender To No One Ever Again
Surrender To No One Ever Again
Surrender To No One Ever... Again
Surrender To No One!!
