

Can't Hold On

Cheap Trick

You've been coming
You've made it easy
You've said just the thing

Now I can't hold on
To these words
Don't mean that much to me
Feel out in the cold
No one to turn to

It's my sunset
My sun's set

Never thought it's come to this
Now it seems the only way, to do it right
Never thought it'd come to this
Just can't hold on, oh no

Feel out in the cold
No one to turn to
There's no way out
Just can't hold on

It's my sunset
My sun will set

I've been gone, gone, gone
Can't hold on
