Everlasting Sleep

Chelsea Grin

I will bleed out under moonlight Red to pay for what I did I lay to rest under the stars Below me waits the loathing nemesis Slowly building fear inside I seek everlasting sleep Everlasting sleep I'm bleeding out Call to me beauty Make me misery When blood seeps through every pour I am yours forevermore Forevermore To be human no more. I want you to see the scars You can't give me peace I seek everlasting sleep I want you to see the scars You can't give me peace I seek everlasting sleep SLEEP When blood seeps through every pour When blood seeps through every pour I am yours forevermore
