

Will you take me I'm falling
Down a hole I dug myself
Filled with sorrow and fuckups
Don't wanna be apart of that shit.

Standing on the edge of nothing
Made my life into a mess
Now it's too late to fix it.
I'm already starting to lose control

Banging my head into the wall
Trying to get rid of all voices inside
Is this a dream or is it real

Ripping my heart out.

I go my way don't give a damn about you.
Your fists don't hurt me
Someone said hello
Is this true am I visible
Take my hand drag me out of the crowd

You found me there, in my hole I dug myself
You helped me out now my soul lives again
