

Getting on my way
This room has space for others
Maybe this has never been in
Heart and certainly
Nowhere close to my soul
Maybe this is time to make it count

I'm all yours tonight
I'll let you into my heart
With your hands in mine

Tonight
You'll find them waiting here for you
And all the medicine will always last for hours
Tonight
You'll find them towering over you
But all the innocence was probably never ours

And if I ever let you fail
It wasn't worth my time
And if I ever let them win
It wasn't worth my time

I'm all yours tonight
I'll let you into my heart
With your hands in mine

I'm all yours tonight
You've got the keys to my heart

Just forget the time with me

I'm all yours tonight
I'll let you into my heart
With your hands in mine

I'm all yours tonight
You've got the keys to my heart

Just forget the time with me
