

This Night

Chemistry

You know, everything that is low flows
I know, time has passed and i have already changed

Because to forget everything time is necessary.
I just want you to stay as you are a little longer.

As for you, how do you want me be?
To me, your someone that i can't replace
This night I'll be over you
I'll say it over and over again
Words of love and these kinds of painful thoughts.

How long will this continue?
If I caused you to end it, then even I understand
Even though I really knew from the beginning all along that it would end up this way.

Flimsy words on a thread, our locked gazes disconnected.
Even though it comes close we can't see it.

As for you, what is the meaning of the two of us?
Inside me, you overflow from my fingertips
This night, I'll be over you
I'll confirm it over and over again
Memories of love and these kinds of feelings.

I expect I understand it is as if I am trying to catch my emotions in my hand
Even though I totally know that they are things that cannot return.

As for you, how do you want me be?
To me, your someone that I can't replace
This night I'll be over you
I'll say it over and over again
Words of love and these kinds of painful thoughts
