

The Look

Cher

There was I one night in Acapulco
Bored to tears--
the band just played the Tango
You walked in, suddenly I'm in a spin
There you are just like-- some kind of hero
More cool than Brando and Denero
Dressed to kill-- boy, I think you know you'll win
Just like a time bomb tickin' away-- no way to stop this runaway train

You've got the look
That makes me weak
Something in your eyes that
Words can't speak
And you can cast a spell on me
Like a bullet to my heart

Oh, you've got a move
A certain style
Just the thought of you can
Drive me wild
You've got the look that's
Got me hooked
I can't take my eyes off you

What's the story?
I watch you stealing kisses
Broken hearts and tears
Are so delicious
Boy you know your in denial

Oh, What's the use
Pretending I don't want to Tease you, taste you, turn you on
And taunt you
Come to me
Oh, and show me no mercy
I'm flying to close to the sun
And it's a beautiful way to burn!

You've got the look
That makes me weak
Something in your eyes that
Words can't speak
And you can cast a spell on me
Like a bullet to my heart

Oh, you've got a move
A certain style

(Touch me, Touch me
You know you gotta
Oh yeah!)

I'm heading straight into the sun
And now, I'm burning up!
I'm burning up!

You've got the look
That makes me weak
And you can cast a spell on me

Oh, you've got a move
Drive me wild
Got me hooked

No, No, No,
Touch me, taste me, tell me that you want me,
Keep me comin' back you know you got me

'Coz you got that look
Oh, and baby it's my world you shook

Oh, cast a spell
I know you got the Voo-doo
No one makes me feel the way that you do

It's the look that's got me hooked
I can't take me eyes off you
Can't take my eyes off you
