

Damages

Cherish

I really think that u must be out yo mind
Or forgot to tell the time
Judgin by how late u came in
But today I woke up on the wrong side
U should check the curb side
You'll see that I cleaned out ya closet

It seems like u wanna go
So I'm a let u go
So let me help u out &, I'll walk u to the door
U shoulda left a long time ago
Its not too late for me to start all over

No more tryin to fix what's unfixable
No need to try and cure the impossible
So do what u want to U can choose what u want to
If u tryed to loose didnt work cus the damage is done...
The damage the damage, the damage is done (3x)

Bet you thought that when u left I cried Truth it baby I'm fine
Happy that I got rid of you
Go ahead and leave the keys to my ride
Cab is waitin outside
Once again I'm way ahead of u

I kno u wanna go
So I'm a let u go
I'll do jus fine without u
Already movin on
I shoulda left a long time ago
But it's not too late to start all over

No more tryin to fix what's unfixable
No need to try and cure the impossible
So do what u want to free to choose who u want to
If u tryed to loose me didnt work cus the damage is done...
The damage the damage, the, the damage is done (3x)

No more tryin to fix what's unfixable
No need to try and cure the impossible
So do what u want to U can choose who u want to
If u tryed to loose me then it worked cus the damage is done...
The damage the damage, the, the damage is done (3x)
I wont cry noooo
my life is better now that youre gone
