

How Long

Cherryholmes

Trying to move on ain't coming very easy
Seems I'm standing with my back against a wall
Thinking of the life that I chose and how it's left me
Trying to recall a love that's too far gone

CHORUS

How long will you haunt my memory
How long will your memory trouble my mind
How long will it take for my heart not to ache
I'm dying for a love I left behind

If I could only reach back to the arms that held me
If I had never thought to walk away
I wouldn't be alone tonight crying with the memory
And paying a price I never should have paid

CHORUS (2x)
