

Happy Tears

Cheryl Cole

I cried when I heard you were cheating
I cried when I said I was leaving
I cried when my heart stop believing
But I am all out of tears
Then I feel so weak but I know I'm strong
So I wipe my face and I just move on
My eyes are red
My cheeks are dry
Singing our last goodbye

I cut off my hair and I painted my toes
I sold all the diamonds and burnt all your clothes
I ain't never gonna cry again
I ain't never gonna cry again
I ain't never gonna cry again
No
Unless they're happy tears

Woah woah woah

Unless they're happy tears

I bet you've been trying to call me
I blocked all your numbers so you couldn't phone
I don't wanna hear "baby I'm sorry"
You don't get to apologise
'Cause I'm not weak I know I'm strong
You hurt me once, your chance has gone
Our love is dead but I'm still alive
Singing my last goodbye

I cut of my hair and I painted my toes
Painted my toes
I sold all the diamonds and burnt all your clothes
I ain't never gonna cry again
I ain't never gonna cry again
I ain't never gonna cry again
No
Unless they're happy tears

I cried when I slashed all your tires
I cried when your suits hit the fire
I cried 'cause I'll never see you again
But those are happy tears

I cut of my hair and I painted my toes
I sold all the diamonds and burnt all your clothes
I ain't never gonna cry again
I ain't never gonna cry again
I ain't never gonna cry again
Unless they're happy tears
