

Raindrops

Cheryl Cole

Oooohhhh oooooohhhh oohhhhh

You were the tree and I was the apple
And fell to the ground and turn brown
Hate was the wind
But love was the secret that blew us to were we are now
And now love can grow without tiny little raindrop tiny little tiny little m essy little raindrops
Cry on my shoulder
Cry on my shoulder
For love
Loveeee
For love
Lovee
We were told we were told we were larger than life
We were told we were told we were larger than life
For love
Lovee
Floats like the sea
So distant and waving
Bring you closer to me
Stay next to me
For love cant keep waiting
Its got no place left to be
And now love can grow without tiny little raindrop tiny little tiny little m essy little raindrops
Cry on my shoulder
Cry on my shoulder
For love
Loveeee
For love
Lovee
We were told we were told we were larger than life
We were told we were told we were larger than life
For love
Lovee
We were told we were told we were larger than life
We were told we were told we were larger than life
For love
