

Bromance

Chester See

Bromance, bro-o-o-mance
It's like Eminem and Dr. Dre, if I loved you more I might be gay
And I'm feeling down you know just what to say
You my homie (homie)
Yeah, you know me (know me)

And if you ever need a wingman
I'd let any girl blow me off.
Cuz you're more important then the rest, I confess
I'm a mess if I'm not hanging whit my BFF
You know it's true, you're my male 'boo' (my boo)
Now sing the chours whit me if you're feeling the same way too.

Bromance, nothing really gay about it
Not that there's anything wrong with being gay
Bro-o-o-o-mance, shouldn't be ashamed or hide it
I love you in the most heterosexual way

Hold me to a promise that I'll be the kind of friend that in the end will always keep you company
Cuz when the world gets tough
And times get hard,
I will always love you, I'll be your body guard cuz you're my bestie
(bestie) and if you test me (test me)

I'll prove it time and time again
I've got your back until the end
A brother from another mother
Never knew how much I loved you
Till I started singing this song

Bromance (bromance), nothing really gay about it
Not that there's anything wrong with being gay
Bro-o-o-o-mance, shouldn't be ashamed or hide it
I love you in the most heterosexual way

And now that I told you how
I feel I hope you feel the same way too
But if you don't this song is just a joke haaa
But if you do, I love you-u-u-u!

Bromance (bromance), nothing really gay about it
Not that there's anything wrong with being ga-a-ay
Bro-o-o-o-mance, shouldn't be ashamed or hide it
I love you (love you) in the most heterosexual way

I love bro
