

Fairy Tales

Chester See

Once upon a time you were left crying in the rain and hurt you said, you'd never love again

He came along and broke your heart now it's been crushed and needs new parts you feel like it will never heal you tell me you've been feelin like givin up on dreamin cause love will only let you down you say that you've be thinkin that your prince will never come around well I'll say

Happy Ever After Ending, Close your eyes and start pretending your the princess to the story and I can be your prince charmin g sleeping beauty cinderella, I'll be Edward you be Bella so Take my Hand and Dance with me Just one Kiss and You'll believe we can turn the night into anything for you cause sometimes Fairy Tales come true

It's not about what Happened then but what will Happen in the end and I know, How this story goes So every time your feelin like there's no use in believin all the stories you were told before and you can't find a reason to believe in somehting anymore well I'll say...

Happy Ever After Ending,
Close your eyes and start pretending
your the princess to the story and I can be your prince charmin
g sleeping beauty cinderella, I'm the Beast but your my Bell so Take my Hand and Dance with me
Just one Kiss and You'll believe
we can turn the night into anything for you
cause sometimes Fairy Tales come true

Cause sometimes Fairy Tales Come true.
