

I Want To Live Tomorrow Today

Chester See

Seems I'm always so close but how far nobody knows with every time that I'm told tomorrow's my day But days they've turned into years and I'm still stuck standing here you say there's nothing to fear I'm on my way

But every time my dreams change according to my age

I want to live the good life before my time has slipped away I want to scream I've made it not just dream about the day I want to sing this song to a million fans
hear them calling out my name
I want to live tomorrow, today

I don't mean to be rude but what the f am I to do? it's always the same old news need one more song but how much time can I let pass before I stop myself and ask is this even the right path it's taking too long

But every time my dreams change
according to my age

before my time has slipped away
I want to scream I've made it
not just dream about the day
to a million fans
hear them calling out my name
I want to live tomorrow, today

I don't need the house in the hills or the cars parked outside not that that wouldn't be nice I'm not gonna lie but what I really need is to finally be heard I want to be drowned in voices singing my words

before my time has slipped away
I want to scream I've made it
not just dream about the day

hear them calling out my name
I want to live tomorrow, today

I want to live tomorrow
I want to live tomorrow
I want to live tomorrow, today.
