

To Me

Chet Faker

You keep on lying, you keep on lying, to me
You're keepin' me tight, You're keepin' me tight, I see
You keep on tryin', enough to rely, on me
You keep on lyin', enough to deny you, can see

When you curl up in bed and, just you in your head now, are you livin'?

When you look straight ahead and, you wish you were dead now, a re you givin'?

You're givin' it all for nothin'
You're givin' it all for nothin'
I know
You're givin' it all for nothin'
You're givin' it all for nothin'
I know

You keep on lyin', you keep on lyin', to me
You're keepin' me tired, You're keepin' me tired, I see
You keep on tryin', enough to rely, on me
You keep on lyin', enough to deny you, can see

When you curl up in bed and, just you in your head now, are you
livin'?

When you look straight ahead and, you wish you were dead now, a re you givin'?

You're givin' it all for nothin' (You keep goin')
You're givin' it all for nothin' (You keep goin')
I know
You're givin' it all for nothin' (You keep goin')
You're givin' it all for nothin' (You keep goin')
I know
