

Sleep Walking Elite

Chevelle

Rushed and told
And betting continued
Be at their marks
But somehow and hold
And wont be held
Under the spell

Bribed when tried
Is focused on the balling
Of the men to know
Got left inside underbelly's choke

Well you assumed
At least they'll call us
Men again
For all shadows
That keep on crawling
Out from under close

Behold rest assured
The sleep walking elite
When their days
Are numbered like the shallow
When they sit
On their knees
On their knees
On their knees
As they sit
On their knees
On their knees
On their knees

Well you are should
At least they'll call us
Men again
For all shadows
That keep on crawling
Out from under close

Close

Well you assumed
At least they'll call us
Men again
For all shadows
That keep on crawling
Out from under

Well you assumed
At least they'll call us
Men again
For all shadows
That keep on crawling
Out from under...
