

My Somewhere To Go

Chiara Civello

When the light is shining on tomorrow
I wake up ready for today
The steps of yesterday don't follow
Closing doors turning dreams away
Suddenly a spark of lightning
Suddenly you're here
They say it's all about a great beginning
And in your eyes the end disappears

I don't mind, I don't mind
Cause meeting you I left my past behind
You're so kind oh you're so kind
Can you be.....

Be my somewhere to go
Be my somehow I know
Be the sky as I fall
Be my someone to call

The moon is spilling silver around us
Kisses are the only words we say
Don't question anything just hold me closer
And make forever everyday
