

In Terms of Two

Chicago

You played the part of Miss Hard-to-get
And somehow you knew that I couldn't forget
And though I don't think in terms of two
I got it bad for you

And when you passed me along the way
I couldn't speak
So you didn't stay
And though I don't think in terms of two

You're breaking my heart
Shaking me all apart
Breaking my heart
Shaking me all apart again

When it appeared to me I was down
And nothing I did could bring me around
And though I don't think in terms of two
I saw it there in you

So now if you'd only understand
That without you here
I'd be half of a man
And though I don't think in terms of two

You're breaking my heart
Shakin' me all apart
Breaking my heart
Shakin' me all apart again

Because of you
Because of me
The time's not right
I disagree
Before you leave
I want you to see
Woah, what you've done to me
