

I am the shit
I hold heat like cigarettes
No one else is doing this Work this hard you get respect
I don't sleep, I dream awake Swear this life's like make or break
I don't make I fix mistakes
Your life good, my life is great
This game is a bitch and I'm different, dude I'm trying to fuck this bitch she ain't in the mood, seduce her quick Everyone talking bout game needs change ain't changing shit

Talk don't make it happen, I do not talk, I am just a rapper Too tight need muscle relaxer, I'm what's next, just ask them
All I know it's what I came for glory, glory, glory,
glory, glory, yeah

I wanna do this right, leave my heart on stage when I hold a mic
And the game OT, no end in sight
So I write in my sleep, I don't say good night
This must be how the angels felt
I hope that I don't Corey Haim myself
I know that I drink an insane amount Cuz it helps with the joy and the pain of wealth
These guys don't seem like the friends I need
And they hang backstage drinking beers for free
My mom and my dad in the balcony
The one time that I hope they look down on me Cuz they proud of me yhey call me a role model
Even though my hand's glued to that gin bottle I keep my career going full throttle even though the pain will follow

All I know it's what I came for glory, glory, glory,
glory, glory, yeah
