

Deadnight Warrior

Children of Bodom

Before the daylight falls to the graves - deadnight shadows
Soon I'll cross through that rift
I'll fly across the sky

It's such a lonely way
This one'll be black
The jet black always in the sky
It reflects hatred in my eyes

If the daylight dies the shadows fall all over me
Then death, you'll have your way
Scorn the torment in moonlight's shadow
I can't get out, lost the way for eternity

You're the guard of the dead ones
In the night I'll find you to drink your blood
Still the deadnight's screaming in my heart
The dead of night's close by!

So wake it up, call my name, it's Deadnight Warrior!
Send them on a trip of pain
I can't wait!

It's such a lonely fight
This one'll be black
The jet black rises to the skies
It reflects hatred in my eyes

Feeling such a pain to die now
Being a hungry wolf
Crying under the moonlight's shadow
Sensing you
