

Kings of the Shadow World

Chimaira

Horror, inconceivable to believe torture, penetrate the heart of humanity

To satisfy is to sacrifice we rely on death to give meaning to life

Cult healing incomprehensible twenty first century massacre

We are what you fear the most in this drugged up dystopia

Catatonic butchers rule the mind we are what you fear the most

Orchestrating execution kings of the shadow world

Panic, everlasting cause for alarm terror, trepidation dropping the bomb

To satisfy is to sacrifice leave them, incapacitated twenty first century massacre

We are what you fear the most in this drugged up dystopia

Catatonic butchers rule your mind we are what you fear the most

Orchestrating execution kings of the shadow world

Behind the curtain evil darkness behind the shadows build inside us.
