

The Venom Inside

Chimaira

The venom inside.
Turned me into the enemy
Turned into what I hate
My apathy got the best of me
Blood boiled and lost my way
I never thought I'd be the one to blame
Have to live with constant shame
Everything that I put inside
Just to feel numb
I tried to escape
push it away
tried to hide
The venom inside
This was nothing but moral abuse Guess I just needed something new What could I gain from solitude?
Or acting like a fool?
I tried to escape
push it away
tried to hide
The venom inside
I tried to escape
push it away
tried to hide
The venom inside
Disconnected, Apathetic
It's so pathetic to be this frantic
I needed help! I needed help!
Like methadone for an addict
I tried to escape
push it away
tried to hide
The venom inside
