

A Day's Work For The Day's Done

China Crisis

Caution are a family man
attending to business
his best he can
Mrs. Missadventurer say check for one million in the post today in like a dream come true only ourselves to please we then can hold on to these precious things

We are not rich
we are not poor
we never stand tall
on what we know
and every day
will mean the same
to those we love
we raise our voice

Irish whisky and a table for two on troublesome occasion the best thing to do take advantage of myself and my time I don't give up easily what is rightly mine

We are not rich
we are not poor
we never stand tall
on what we know

his best he can
Mrs. Missadventurer say
check for one million in the post today

protecting his interest
his best he can
Mrs. Missadventurer say he will buy his wealthy in the world today
and I can hold on to these precious things

we are not poor
we never stand tall
on what we know
we raise our voice
