

Sweet Charity In Adoration

China Crisis

You say you're changing
You say you've changed
You feel inspired
Say you are in love
You say there's beauty
Beauty in my world
Like yourself I'm no stranger
To the world built between us
"plane flies over grey skies"
You say you're changing
You say you've changed
See for the first time
You see a difference
Only a shadow remaining
A shadow of yourself
"plane flies over grey skies"
You say you're changing
You say you've changed
Sweet charity in adoration
Moves me
I cherish every moment
You say I look tired
Tired in my work
Say that's not what you're wanting
Weary of my world
I turn on your tears
I turn on your laughter
And you'll be my witness
Say we are in love
"plane flies over grey skies"
You say you're changing
You say you've changed
