

Left You At The Farm

Chinawoman

you cried in the car, in the car, all the way i just sat and waited

said i'd be with you, 'til the end, 'til the end
instead

from the first, very first time she walked into my room somehow you already knew

time to go see the stars, love has kept us hidden away seeing things is good
they say

never could understand leaving your love behind guess that means i've changed my mind

goodbye now means more than just goodbye i won't be there when you die

said that i'd be with you, 'til the end, 'til the end
instead
