

Champion feat Chris Brown

Chipmunk

Some people have to learn
Some people wait there turn
Some people have to fight
Some people give it up

They wanna hold you back, tell 'em pee off
Whenever they say you can't, take the c off
I remember when they told me I couldn't be famous Now my dream and reality is simultaneous
And work your own way to the top
If they put you on a pedestal they can take you off
And there's a higher level than the top
You gotta make more, don't do with what you got Yeah, so get it in go sunny
Not everybody gets a second chance at getting money
Or even getting lucky so you gotta feel
The hunger in your tummy

I'm always pushing myself to the limit
Making sure I stay ahead
You made me who I am, from the words you said

Some people have to learn
Some people wait there turn
Some people but not me
I was born a champion

Some people have to fight
Some people give their lives
Some people don't believe
I was born a champion
But I was born a champion
But I was born a champion

This gon be the realest shit I ever wrote off the record, no camera's, forget a quote some of my family doing good, most doing dope
I from Virginia where they hang nigger by a rope
I used to see my momma getting beat down!
Is that the real definition of me now?
I fell off, back on my feet now headed to the sky, can't even see down award shows, I poured my heart out and people still steady tryna point my flaws out and I'd be lying if I said it ain't get to me but I'm a champion, legend, history

No-one wants to help
I guess you're on your own
Build a foundation with the bricks they throw
In a black and white World, True colors show
Change if you want, everybody grows
Life's like an ill, but try and get a hold Opinions ain't fact, take em and let em go

You made me who I am from the words you said

Some people have to learn
Some people wait there turn
Some people but not me
I was born a champion (champion)

Some people have to fight
Some people give their lives
Some people don't believe
But I was born a champion

Some people have to learn
Some people wait there turn
Some people but not me
I was born a champion (champion)

Some people have to fight
Some people give their lives
Some people don't believe
But I was born a champion
But I was born a champion
