

I thought everyone knew it
But I guess there still could be a bunch
Who must have been out of town
Or they could have been out having lunch
They missed a nasty break up
Now you and me are shagged up

I'm sick and they're getting away
What d'ya think they're gonna say
It's just gonna be me and who they like to call Koo Stark
(Koo Stark, Koo Stark)

We now only went where we wouldn't see no one we knew
Everything was ideal cause we stuck right together like glue
And then we saw some people that hadn't heard about you

The world's getting smaller each day
They didn't know what to say
It was just me and who they're gonna call Koo Stark
(Koo Stark, Koo Stark)
(Koo Stark, Koo Stark)

Now that we're home and the rumors have kinda died down
We can tell who's a friend and we don't let the other around
[...]
Now it's some one else's turn to have it

We don't want your public displays
Who cares what they're gonna say
It is what it is, it's just me and my miss, Koo Stark
(Koo Stark, Koo Stark)
Koo Stark
(Koo Stark, Koo Stark)

We don't want your public displays
Who cares what they're gonna say
It is what it is, it's just me and my miss, Koo Stark
(Koo Stark, Koo Stark)
Koo Stark
(Koo Stark, Koo Stark)
Koo Stark
(Koo Stark, Koo Stark)
Koo Stark
(Koo Stark, Koo Stark)
