Chokehold

Somewhere along this line we were stripped of identity, creativity developed this sheep mentality of following everything cultureless we are entertained by senseless sitcoms and infomercials

It angers me to see a nation reduced to a full scale game of follow the leader

They have us fooled reaching for the amerikkkan dream

Trapped in the 9-5 it's like swimming upstream

Do as they tell you forethought is bound to fail

We are dying and no one seems to care

To busy rushing to a go no-where career

You think you're free?

You just can't see the bars were all in prison in these free countries of ours

Your not free you never we're...
