

Deaf To Reason

Chokehold

Im tired of trying to get my point across
No one ever listens, no one even cares
Even if nothing changes, I know deep inside
That my thoughts, my hopes are what keep me satisfied
The bright side has faded to almost total black
Relying on others to do the work wont help
Because together we are strong
And divided we are sure to fall
Take in a bit of reality
And maybe youll see we cant go on like this
Or we will be gone
Its hard I know,
But the change has to be made
CAUGHT, TRAPPED, NO ESCAPE
Never will I give in
