

Born To Die

Choking Victim

and you get to sit and watch your TV set believe the lies before your eyes
credit cards and apple pies 50 stars to blind your eyes 13 stripes to hypnotize free thought is gone you'll never see you're just a pawn

you'll die tomorrow
but today your empty dreams just fade away evaporate
dissolve to hate
while you survive and wait until a lifeless fate your stupid lives just piddle on you slave for others, and then your gone i just can't escape the lying moment we are born were dying such an ugly sight

we have no rights
we have no future
no reasons why
we're born to die

your dumb self can't appreciate the freedom in my thought the weak sense of autonomy when I'm flipping in my squat that empty void was never filled but the dreams of others you helped kill you'll justify, will linger on but dontcha know that dreams all die the day you're born

we have no God
there's only ignorant bliss
no reasons why

no reasons why
we are born to die
just born to die

gone to bed
God is dead
lies and truth are in my head your history, society, economy it isn't me

it's all on you, reality it's whatcha do
it's whatcha make the truth and lies

the freedom dies
the mind it numbs
the spirit breaks

all our rights
it kills our future
our reasons why we are born to die (just born to die)
