

Canyons

Chris August

Mountains and valleys
The ups and the downs I go through
I will rejoice in You, Jesus
No matter the view

So I'm singing out
From the depths of my heart
I'm singing out
At the top of my lungs

I'm in love with You
'Cause canyons will echo my voice
Screaming Hallelujah
Oh, what a beautiful noise

Glory to God in the highest
From down here below
Jesus my Savior, Your name
Is the sound of my hope

So I'm singing out
From the depths of my heart
I'm singing out
At the top of my lungs, lifting You high

I'm in love with You
'Cause canyons will echo my voice
Screaming Hallelujah
Oh, what a beautiful noise

The sound of Your name
I long to hear
It's music to my ears
I'm in love with You

'Cause canyons will echo my voice
Screaming Halle, Hallelujah

I'm in love with You
'Cause canyons will echo my voice
Screaming Hallelujah

Oh, I'm in love with You
'Cause canyons will echo my voice
Screaming Hallelujah
Oh, what a beautiful noise

What a beautiful noise
What a beautiful noise
