

Wait In Line

Chris August

Verse 1:

I don't mind waiting,
for the one true thing.
If the one true thing is you.
'Cause all life has meaning,
till we walk away
From the one true thing that we knew.

Chorus:

I've walking around with my head down
Been asking myself who I am now
I stand in line, just to know I'll be alright.
I've been crawling on floors just to kneel down.
I'm hoping there's more to this world now,
but I'll be just fine, I'm just gonna wait in line.

Verse 2:

Whats true is good here, if it takes some time
In the time it takes, is true.
All good things take time, so that one true thing,
is more than worth the wait, for you.

Chorus

Bridge:

Its been some time, gotta wait in line.
Gotta give your life, to find what is right.
I know there's more to the world here,
is a tunnel of light, so you can find the only way that leads to life

Chorus
