

Want To Be Real

Chris August

I've never said this before, I've never opened that door so wide
No one else is around there's no good reason for me to hide
And I, I want to be real

[Chorus:]

So I'm throwing out words I don't fully understand
I could be talking to myself, but I don't think I am
'Cause You're always there, through the fight Saving my heart from the doubt inside

I'm not the man that I was, I used to see You in highs and lows
But now I'll keep on believing, even if I can't see You
And I, I wanna be real

[Chorus]

And I, I wanna be real, and I, I wanna be real There's too much at stake and I'm tired of faking
I just wanna be real, I wanna be real
There's too much at stake and I don't care if I break
I wanna be real, I just wanna be real
