Fallin Down

Chris Brown

Sometimes I don't wanna wake up alone But sometimes I wanna wake up and be on my own Sometimes I don't wanna walk by your smile But at the same time I don't wanna let people down

Can you imagine, the weight of a world Placed on your shoulders, trapped in this world And no-one can reach you, ohhh ohhh ohhh So no-one can help you, nowwww

It's getting heavy I think I'm bout ready to break down I'm standing up, but I'm fallin down Time keeps on tickin on wish there was a way to slow it down Someone pick me up, cause I'm fallin down I'm fallin down, down, down, down, Down, down, down, down, down, I'm fallin down, down, down, Down, down, down, down, down,

Why is it so easy for you to blame I'm only human we're all the same I've given up everything in exchange for being alone I'm shaking these demons underneath all the pride, ohhhhhhh

Can you imagine, the weight of a world Placed on your shoulders, trapped in this world And no-one can reach you, ohhh ohhh ohhh So no-one can help you, nowwww

It's getting heavy I think I'm bout ready to break down
I'm standing up, but I'm fallin down
Time keeps on tickin on wish there was a way to slow it down
Someone pick me up, cause I'm fallin down
I'm fallin down, down, down, down,
Down, down, down, down, down,
I'm fallin down, down, down,
Down, down, down, down,
I'm fallin down, down, down,
Down, down, down, down,
Down, down, down, down,
Down, down, down, down,
Down, down, down, down,

It's getting heavy I think I'm bout ready to break down I'm standing up, but I'm fallin down Time keeps on tickin on wish there was a way to slow it down Someone pick me up, cause I'm fallin down

It's getting heavy I think I'm bout ready to break down I'm standing up, but I'm fallin down Time keeps on tickin on wish there was a way to slow it down Someone pick me up, cause I'm fallin down I'm fallin down, down, down, down, Down, down, down, down, down, I'm fallin down, down, down, Down, down, down, down, down, I'm fallin down, down, down, Down, down, down, down, down, I'm fallin down, down, down, down, Down, down, down, down
