

Lady in a Glass Dress

Chris Brown

Lady in a glass dress
I can see right through you
You act like you don't want this
But you know that you do
Since he broke your heart, girl
You say that you won't love again
And you won't let his type girl
But we know in the end

You still dream (dream)
You still dream (dream)
Baby, I can make your dreams come true

Oh, oh
My lady in the glass dress
Oh, oh
