

Summer Again

Chris Cagle

The sun is rising, sky is blue,
Temperature's climbing, baby, kick off them shoes.
The girls are striking and they're showing some skin
Hey, everybody, it's summer again.

Cars are rolling, tops are down
Coolers are loving all over this town.
Everyone's laughing, hanging with friends
Hey, everybody, it's summer again,
Hey, everybody, it's summer again.

We've been waiting all winter for this time of year
For summer nights, summer loving and it's finally here
It's finally here.

Kids are playing out in the streets
Bikinis laying out in the heat.
Every girl wants to capture some tan,
Hey, everybody, it's summer again
Hey, everybody, it's summer again.

We've been working all winter for this time of year
For summer nights, summer loving and it's finally here,
It's finally here.

Take all your troubles back on the way
Ain't gonna need 'em 'till the next cold day.
Just sit back and let the sun shine in,
Hey, everybody, it's summer again.
Hey, everybody, it's summer again.
Hey, everybody, it's summer again.
