

Sweet Revenge

Chris Cornell

Everybody out for my blood, everybody want my percent
I don't want to start going off, I don't want to start talking shit
They just want to take what is mine, how much more can they get
I already know what they want, I already know what they spent Nowadays I think like a moment, why they looking for blood
I'm about to get what they owe, gonna get back what they stole

Let me talk to the fans, every time I walk in the door
They just want to take my advance, but I won't stop til they know
Walk with me now

When I retaliate, you're gonna know
The mourning of sweet revenge
Pain and suffering will come to those when I get even
It's such a
Sweet revenge (4x)

I bet they won't stop til I quit, I bet they won't leave til I go
Ain't gonna hurt me a bit, one monkey won't stop the show
I've been through dirt and sand, traveled to foreign lands
Been to hell and come back, I ain't gonna go there again
Why they wanna cause me to trip, why they wanna see me take a fall
They wanna get something for nothing, wanna see me jumping and running

Let me talk to the fans, never gonna stop doing this Til I'm deep in the ground, come way too far to give in
Walk with me now

When I retaliate, you're gonna know
The mourning of sweet revenge
Pain and suffering will come to those when I get even
It's such a
Sweet revenge (4x)

When I retaliate, you're gonna know
The mourning of sweet revenge
Pain and suffering will come to those when I get even
It's such a
Sweet revenge (4x)
