

In Your Eyes

Chris de Burgh

Some people fall in love
In rooms that are so dark.
They can't see where they are going
And they lose their hearts.
But when I saw your face,
It was a light so strong!
I could feel a long night coming on...!

In your eyes...!
In your eyes...!

And I saw driving down to the river;
Laughing in the rain;
Dancing out in the moonlight;
Papers in bed!
And I saw your delights as a lover
Until the break of day!
And oh... every time I look
It's you and me together... in your eyes.

Some people say that time changes everything.
With love there's no way of knowing
What the world may bring.
But I don't mind at all, because it's you and me!
And all I've ever wanted, I can see...

In your eyes...!
In your eyes...!

And we are driving down to the river;
Laughing in the rain;
Dancing out in the moonlight;
Papers in bed.
And I feel your delights as a lover
Until the break of day!
Oh and every time I look
It's you and me together in your eyes!

In your eyes...!
In your eyes...!

And I feel your delights as a lover
Until the break of day!
And oh every time I look
It's you and me forever... in your eyes!

In your eyes...!
In your eyes...!

Driving down to the river...
Your delights as a lover...
Dancing out in the moonlight...
