

My Heart's Surrender

Chris de Burgh

This is my heart's surrender,
This is my chosen moment,
This is the time to tell you I love you,
Then I have to say goodbye;

And I will miss you when winter comes,
And when the summer is here,
And I will listen to wind and wave,
And I'll pray that you'll never forget,
The one who is breathing your name;

Somewhere, there's a heart that's waiting for this day to come again,
Someday I will come to take you to a world where love cannot hi de anymore;

So don't cry for me, don't cry for me, I will return;

You say you'll always love me,
A candle in your window,
Forever shines where an angel waits to bring me home again;
Back to the place where I'll always be,
With every dream that I have,
For like a tree with the deepest roots,
No storm can bring us down;

Somewhere, there's a heart that's waiting for this day to come
again,
Someday I will come to take you to a world where love cannot hi
de anymore;

Don't cry for me, don't cry for me, I will return;

This is my heart's surrender.
