

I Wonder

Chris Isaak

When I was younger I believed, that dreams came true.
Now I wonder.
Cause' I've seen much more dark skies, than blue.
Now I wonder.

I keep on praying for a blue sky, I keep on searching through t he rain.
I keep on thinking of the good times, will they ever come again
Now I wonder.
Now I wonder.

I keep on praying for a blue sky, I keep on searching through t he rain.
I keep on thinking of the good times, will they ever come again
Now I wonder.
Now I wonder.

When I was younger I believed, that I could win.
Now I wonder.
There was a time when you and I, walked hand & hand.
Now I wonder.

I keep on searching for the old me, I keep on thinking I can ch ange.
I keep on hoping for a new day, will I ever feel the same?
Now I wonder.
Oh I wonder.
Now I wonder.
