

Something Changed

Chris Knight

Intro G C D x4

G C

I came back home to my old town today

G C

My friends were different, nothing much to say

D C

How could a year matter all that much

D C

Then I heard 'em say, "man it must be tough"

G C D

Something cha-a-anged

G C D

Something cha-a-anged

C D

She believed in blue skies

Em C

I just brought her rain

G D G C D

It ain't so strange, something changed

G C

Well they said that I'd be gone for quite a while

G C

When they watched another walk her down the aisle

D C

She found a true heart like I feared she would

D C

But what I found was what we had was good

G C D

Something cha-a-anged

G C D

Something cha-a-anged

C D

She believed in blue skies

Em C

I just brought her rain

G D G C D

It ain't so strange, something changed

G C D

G C

I must have been a fool to ever come back

G C

I should've never gone across the tracks

D C

Down by the depot is where we met

D C

But I walked away and I'm walking yet

G C D

Something cha-a-anged

G C D

Something cha-a-anged

C D

She believed in blue skies
Em C
I just brought her rain
G D G C
It ain't so strange, something changed

G D G C D
It ain't so strange, something changed

G C D x4 (fade)