

Blue Bonnet Blues

Chris LeDoux

Well, there's a special place in my memory,
Where I keep the pictures of a time an' place I left far behind
An' I know the years have probably colored the way it really wa s back Then.
But still, I like to take the memories out an' look at 'em from time to Time.
There's a full moon t'night, on the prarie, a memory just rode into View.
A boy, a buckskin, an' an ole spangler dawg, in the hills where the blue Bonnets grew.
Well I was deep in the heart of Texas, just a kid 'bout 13 at t he time.
Runnin' wild through the mesquite, the cedars and cactus.
It's been years, but your still on my mind.
No matter where I might wander, there's a memeory that I'll nev er lose.
The lonestar shines bright, in my heart tonight
I've got the blue bonnet blues
Well I remember those warm summer evenin's, playin' out under t he stars.
Back then I never dreamed we'd be leavin', but I guess things j ust don't Stay as they are.
Well the years and the miles came between us, but t'night as I' m Dreamin' of you.
Once again, I'm a kid, in the sweet arms of texas...
And I've got the blue bonnet blues.
No matter where I might wander, there's a memory that I'll neve r lose.
'Cause the lonestar shines bright in my heart t'night.
I've got the blue bonnet blues.
The lonestar shines bright in my heart t'night
I've got the blue bonnet blues
