

Just Enough Money, Honey

Chris LeDoux

Every time the end of the month, finally rolls our way.
We've got just enough money honey, to see that the bills get paid.
But this time we've got an extra hundred dollars and I'll tell you what
We outta do.

Let's go downtown and throw it around, and just blow it on just me and
You.
We can take the kids to your mama's 'cause our good times overdue.
We can dance all night, and do it up allright.

But before the night is through,
Let's drive down to the river, the way we used to do.
Let's take a little money honey, and blow it on me and you...
Well I've been doin' the best I can, just to bring the bacon home,

And you've been slavin' every day to make this house a home,
But I've heard that too much work, well it sure ain't good for you.
So let's take a little money honey, and blow it on me and you..
. .
We can take the kids to your mama's, 'cause our good times overdue.

We can dance all night, and do it up right.
But before the night is through,
Let's drive down by the river, the way we used to do.
Let's take a little money honey, and blow it on me and you.

Well let's take a little money honey, and blow it on me and you
...