

Learn To Unlove You

Chris Mann

I'm gonna change up the lock
I'm gonna turn back the clock
I'm gonna untie this knot, and see what I've got
I'm gonna find someone new, instead of being hung up on you
I'm gonna scrape this tattoo right off me
So that's why you should come back and pack up your 3x5s
Cause I don't need them no more

I'm gonna study hard, and get a job
I'm gonna learn to unlove you
I'm gonna take some time and realign
I'm gonna learn to unlove you
Until you're out of sight, and out of my life
I'm gonna get over you, if it's the last thing I do

I'm gonna change my M.O.
I'm gonna get up, my get up and go
I might take it slow but when I get there I'll know it and I'll never look back on this heart attack
I'm gonna spin out a new track, it's as simple as that
So tonight I'm finding some things that I thought I left behind
And I'm not gonna hurt no more.

I'm gonna study hard, and get a job
I'm gonna learn to unlove you
I'm gonna take some time and realign
I'm gonna learn to unlove you
Until you're out of sight, and out of my life

I'll send it out its understood
I know now it's broke for good
And I may never be the same
It's been 2 years and 14 days since the first time I said I'd be okay, but I'll be okay.

Change the lock.
Turn back the clock

I'm gonna study hard, and get a job
I'm gonna learn to unlove you
I'm gonna take some time and realign
I'm gonna learn to unlove you
Until you're out of sight, and out of my life
I'm gonna get over you, if it's the last thing I do
