

Amazing

Chris Norman

Guess I took your love for granted
Even though you care for me
Loosing you has left me stranded
Like a single falling leaf
I was foolish in demanding
Just to blind to see
You`ll always be a part of me baby
How could I survive
I realize as a consequence
To know that your heart still has a home for me

Baby I`m amazed with the thought of you
Your so amazing
Lost in all the thoughts I have of you
Come back here baby
Every night I wisper to the stars
Don`t want to sleep without you
I don` want to live without your love
It`s so amazing

I sacrifice what I should cherish
All you ask was love from me
Now I understand your feelings
You're the air I need to breath
Never meant to cause you any sadness
And you can blame it all on me
The heart of me
Will always be baby
The center of my life
Imagine if your loving someone else
Oh! I don`t want to be reality!

Baby I`m amazed with the thought of you
Your so amazing
Lost in all the thoughts I have of you
Come back here baby
Every night I wisper to the stars
Don` want to sleep without you
I don` want to live without your love
It`s so amazing

Insecure when I let you go
There were so many things that I dint know
I cant forget that very night
You turned around
And walked away from me
Girl!

Baby I`m amazed with the thought of you
Your so amazing
Lost in all the thoughts I have of you
Come back here baby
Every night I wisper to the stars
Don`t want to sleep without you
I don` want to live without your love
It`s so amazing
