

Back Again

Chris Norman

Love is all around Tell the people,
shout it out Hate is what you make Teach your children,
make no mistake

Need someone tonight,
To keep me warm,
hold me tight
Now that I'm here,
I belong
I'm back again

Life will make you wait
You may find that it's too late Oh, if fate is all you lose
You don't lose anything, not much to choose

Need someone tonight,
To keep me warm,
hold me tight
Now that I'm here,
I belong
I'm back again,
back again,
back again
