

Broken Heroes

Chris Norman

Love is like a loser's game
I'll never play again
I'm through with love forever.
Oh

I'm like a fallen star
Love can leave a scar
It's raining in my heart, babe.
Yes, it's true
I'm still missing you.

Broken heroes and fallen angels
Broken dreams and hearts of stone
There's no smoke girl, without a fire
And I'm standing here alone
all alone.

How much have I sacrificed?
My heart aches deep inside
In the name of love, girl.

And how much time and loneliness
I traded for a kiss
It's raining in my heart, babe.
Yes, it's true
I'm still missing you.

Broken heroes and fallen angels
Broken dreams and hearts of stone
There's no smoke girl without a fire
And I'm standing here alone
