

Heart And Soul

Chris Norman

I don't want nobody else but you, only you
Don't you know that everything I do
Is all for you only you
I fall and I stumble
I'm forgetting to breathe

You're my heart and soul my self control
I need you near
And when you go I'm not whole I disappear
You're my sun and moon my favourite tune
The cloak I wear
And I'm no good for anything if you're there
You're my heart and soul, my heart and soul

Don't you leave me standing here to cry don't say goodbye
You cut me deep and now the blood won't dry
Tell me why oh tell me why
I'm going down for the third time
Won't you throw me a line

You're my heart and soul my self control
I need you near
And when you go I'm not whole I disappear
You're my sun and moon my favourite tune
The cloak I wear
And I'm no good for anything if you're there
You're my heart and soul, my heart and soul
My heart and soul

I don't want nobody else but you, only you

You're my heart and soul, my heart and soul
My heart and soul, oh, oh

I don't want nobody else but you, only you
