

Maybe There's A Way

Chris Norman

My heart my soul are yours for the taking
I guess you know
That when you go my heart will be breaking
Cos I love you so

You know you fit me like a glove
Can't help my feelings girl
You know you got my love

Baby there's a chance that I'll be gone tomorrow
Baby you should know I'll always be your friend
Anyway I can I'll beg or steal or I'll borrow
If maybe there's a way of loving you again

The night we met my heart was awoken
From long ago
I can't forget the words that were spoken
Cos I miss you so

I feel the softness of your lips
I'm longing for the touch
Of your healing fingertips

Baby there's a chance that I'll be gone tomorrow
Baby you should know I'll always be your friend
Anyway I can I'll beg or steal or I'll borrow
If maybe there's a way of loving you again

Lonely nights without you
And I can't help imagining
The magic that you do

My heart my soul are yours for the taking
I guess you know
And when you go my heart will be breaking
Cos I love you so

You know you fit me like a glove
Can't help my feelings girl
You know you got my love

Baby there's a chance that I'll be gone tomorrow
Baby you should know I'll always be your friend
Anyway I can I'll beg or steal or I'll borrow
If maybe there's a way of loving you again
If maybe there's a way of loving you again
If maybe there's a way of loving you again
