

She Knows How to Fly

Chris Norman

She laughs too much, she talks too loud
She acts like she's indifferent
You'd see her face in any crowd
She's not so insignificant

In her high heeled shoes and her long black hair
She'll tell you it's irrelevant
And where she goes you know she's there
She talks like she's intelligent

And she knows how to fly
She knows how to move me
She knows how to fly
She knows how to fly

She won't wait or hang around
She says that she's too busy
I'm floatin high above the clouds
She makes me feel so dizzy

And she knows how to fly
She knows how to move me
She knows how to fly
She knows how to fly

Stand in the rain
Take off your shoes again
I couldn't stand the pain
But I didn't know it

She laughs too much, she talks too loud
She acts like she's indifferent
You'd see her face in any crowd
She's not so insignificant

And she knows how to fly
She knows how to move me
She knows how to fly
She knows how to fly

And she knows how to fly
She knows how to move me
She knows how to fly
She knows how to fly ....
